

Ramona Soccer League
PO Box 463
Ramona, CA 92065

Ramona Soccer League Coach Agreement

Ramona Soccer League strives to find and retain coaches who understand their players, the environment, good sportsmanship, respect for others and who are qualified to teach the game of soccer. All coaches must agree to the following and must have a signed copy of this document on file with Ramona Soccer League before they can participate in any coaching activities.

- I understand that I (and any assistant coaches) must have risk management approval and fingerprinting as required by Cal South.
- I understand that I (and any assistant coaches) must have the current youth module coaching certificate as a minimum as required by Cal South.
- I understand that I (and any assistant coaches) must have the concussion module certificate on file as required by Cal South.
- I understand that my assistant coaches must be approved by the RSL Board.
- I understand that at no time should I attend a practice, game or any RSL-related event under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
- I understand that my first priority is the safety of my team's players and will be on time for practices and games and will not leave an event, game or practice site until all of the team's players are with their parent or responsible guardian.
- I understand that I must abide by the policies/bylaws and direction of the RSL Board of Directors.
- I understand that I must never post inappropriate pictures and or statements via any form of social media.
- I understand that I am responsible for the proper behavior and conduct of my assistant coach, players, parents and supporters.
- I understand that the use of profanity is unacceptable.
- I understand that I must be enthusiastic with all players, motivating and encouraging them through positive reinforcement.
- I understand that I must show good sportsmanship and respect to players, referees, other coaches, Board members and spectators at practices, games and all RSL-related events.
- I understand that referee abuse will not be tolerated.
- I understand that although All-Star coaching duties usually go to the coach with the best record at the end of the season, the ultimate decision is up to the RSL Board.
- I understand that I must be humble, generous and gracious in victory, courteous and dignified in defeat.
- I understand that my actions, both good and bad, reflect directly not only on me, but also on my team and Ramona Soccer League.

Coach Name (print)

Coach Signature

Date